IF You wish to buy stamps at the lowest possible prices—subscribe to my New Issue service at once! IF you are missing issues from your present source—then, you need me! Completely satisfied 5-year customers are my assets! Service and economy will be yours! IF you will advise me of your interests—world-wide or certain countries and advise the maximum price you wish to pay per set, I'll do the rest! Airmails only, if you wish. IF you hurry, there are still a few sets of the past year still available at NEW ISSUE prices. Everything on 7-day approval.

New Stamps Announced Last Week

Delay in receipt of cuts from our engraver caused us to omit the illustrations of these five new stamps which were chronicled in the Postage Stamp Parade Column last week. There are two large imperfs from Poland, a new Hungarian overprint, a new Hyderabad overprint, and a two color product from South Africa.

Winter Convention Season Now Open

New Yorkers are often called the most provincial people in the world, and seldom do they find it necessary to get off tiny Manhattan Island, which seems to hold everything in life which they need.

This does not apply to stamp dealers, however, who never miss an opportunity to get out of town to attend a stamp meeting. The Camden Stamp Show, held March 1-3, was attended by so many Gotham dealers that it seemed to be almost a metropolitan exhibit. New York dealers did more business among themselves in the hotel lobby than they do in their native city.

Early in April Atex, the annual Atlantic City stamp show which was held only once during the war years, will be held, and already the subscriptions and reservations for the show indicate that it will be one of the best and largest in the East. It is the first time that a stamp show will be held at the East's premier resort during the Spring season, and the show should be more attended than any ever held in Atlantic City, which has boasted some fine shows.

Bela Scholtz, Sr. is General Chairman again; H. R. Harmer will conduct the auction.

WE WOULD NOT WANT IT TO BE SO

We have recently had a long letter from a collector in Hawaii who had inquired of a New York dealer as to the price on a recently publicized set of stamps of Czechoslovakia. It appears that this collector may have been making a special collection of this country and seeing some stamps announced in our columns had written the dealer who had supplied the information and had inquired as to the price of the set. It so seems that the set was one of those short issues and that the price was up into a good many dollars. The collector then wrote us in disgust, remarking that it seemed that stamp collecting was getting to be a hobby for the rich alone and that an ordinary man had no chance. There is no reason why this same collector should not have written a similar letter and made a similar complaint when he first started to collect stamps, but maybe this was the first time that he had come face to face with something he could not buy in a country which he favored and in which he was deeply interested. There is hardly a collector who could not make a similar complaint if he were of a mind to do so. Most collectors in America collect United States stamps, yet few of them can ever hope to possess many of the rare and high priced varieties that are frequently offered and sold in the auctions.

Were all collectors to take the attitude of the collector from Hawaii, most of them would have to give up and quit.

Is there a solution for the trouble that this collector complains about? Let me answer that we might conceive of a way in which there would be a solution to his problem. That way would be that all countries when issuing stamps would issue enough that all collectors who wanted the stamps could afford to buy the set at a nominal price. Such a plan would then suit the complainant, but what would it do to stamp collecting.

We all like to feel proud of some stamps we have that are of more than ordinary value. We take pride in obtaining some scarce specimen that the other fellow envies and wants.

If there was a plan whereby each collector who wanted some certain stamp could obtain it at a nominal price within his means, then none of us would have any great interest in any particular stamp or stamps because the other fellow would have similar stamps and our collections would in effect be all alike to a certain extent.

Why not then just quit collecting stamps and gather picture cards or labels.

Our friend has the wrong idea about stamp collecting. It is a hobby that has always been recognized as the hobby of "Kids and Kings". The Kings are those who can buy the rarities and the great prized pieces that the Kids can not aspire to, yet there is ample evidence in the stamp world that many of the Kids know more about their stamps and get more satisfaction out of them than do many of the Kings.

One of the best examples of this fact is the late Colonel Green who bought stamps like a drunken sailor, carted them home wrapped up in packages and shoved them into a closet or under a bed and that is where many of them were found when his attorneys called in a stamp dealer to appraise the stuff and arrange for their sale.

Many a man with less than a hundred dollars per year to spend for stamps got more enjoyment and gained more Philatelic knowledge out of his meagre spending than did this man with his millions.

We would not want it otherwise. If we could obtain anything in stamps that we wanted, just by laying down a dollar or so and carrying the stamp home, our interest in stamps would vanish. It is the hunt, the chase, the fascination of an unexpected find or the acquisition of something unusual for which we have searched long and often that makes stamp collecting so fascinating.

Give every collector a block of inverted 24c airmails and the other rare items that are in a similar class and interest in stamp collecting would vanish for most of them.

The best way to collect stamps is to try to confine your interests to some group of stamps wherein you will be able to purchase, within your means the items you will want to add to your collection. Many a wonderful collection of comparatively cheap stamps has been made by collectors who had the time, the interest, the patience and the knowledge to build such a collection.

There is fun, pleasure and interest in stamps for every man, no matter what his station. What they get out of it is wholly up to their own effort and those who get the most enjoyment are often those who spend less and study and search more. Many a cheap mixture has been the basis of a collection that has provided endless hours of pleasure for the man who has the urge and the love of stamps to go over it thoroughly and classify and study his stamps.

PRESCOTT HOLDEN THORPE RECEIVES CRAWFORD MEDAL

Several years ago the Royal Philatelic Society of London established an award known as the Crawford Medal, in honor of the then Earl of Crawford who was one of Britain's noted and most famous Philatelic students.

The medal has been awarded less than twenty times since it was first established in 1914 and is given for outstanding Philatelic work without regard to country or nationality.

Up to this time the United States has been honored on four different occasions by having the medal given to Charles Lathrop Pack (1923); Dr. Carroll Chase (1930); Stanley Ashbrook (1937); Max Johl (1938).

Mr. Thorpe has just been awarded this medal for his catalogue of United States Envelopes and states that he does not believe that the medal has been awarded since 1938 due to the war. This makes the fifth time that the medal has been awarded to an American Philatelist and out of less than twenty awards this country has fared pretty well by taking over 25% of the awards. Mr. Thorpe is naturally quite proud of this award as he well should be and we congratulate him on his accomplishment.

To Collectors of U. S. Mint

In our studied opinion, the collector is served no useful purpose by the price-lists of stamps usually available from dealers. We know of no price-list that is authentic in that premiums or added charges are not specified for the better quality stamps.

Each dealer's own idea of "average" copies is the basis on which stamps are priced and very often they are not available at considerable advance over the list price. Our experience, we have found that the "average" copies are not acceptable to the discriminating collector who desires well centered stamps in very fine condition.

We therefore publish no price-list and prefer to submit on approval those stamps in which the collector expresses interest. When we receive a "want-list" we fill it at the lowest possible price consistent with quality. And for the "average" copies we guarantee to meet any current price-list.

You are invited to try our service; we feel certain that it will meet with the most exacting demands.

Roosevelt Stamps Come From Many Countries
As the anniversary of the death of Franklin Delano Roosevelt approaches, collectors are evidencing increasing interest in the group of stamps issued or pending which honor this great President. Gimbels Stamp Department New York has compiled a list of these stamps which thus far includes eleven countries. Guatemala was the first to honor or President Roosevelt, while he was in office, using his likeness on one of the four 4 centavos stamps comprising a souvenir sheet commemorating the Pan American Union jubilee, in 1938 (Scott's C92). Next followed Brazil, with a single stamp (No. 487) also honoring the Pan American Union. Colombia was the first to issue special stamps in 1945, with a set of three overprints comprising only the 5c. stamp with likenesses of Roosevelt, Churchill and Stalin in green, red and blue (No's 520-2). These are also stated to exist inverted.

Liberia followed with three stamps picturing Roosevelt in a jeep reviewing troops. This unit consisted of 3c postage (No. 295), 5c postage (No. 296) and 70c air mail (C38). Then came Greece with its revised designs (30dr., 60dr., and 200dr.) which are reported in two distinct printings. Haiti produced two black air mail stamps, the values being 20c. and 60c.

In the United States there are five "Roosevelt" stamps. One is the 5c United Nations Conference stamp with his name. The others are the Memorial issue comprising the 1c green; 2c red; 3c purple, and 5c blue.

Yet to come is a set from Honduras, stated to include eight denominations; China with an unannounced number of values; Cuba with a 2c. denomination, and Nicaragua which is to have six postage and five air mail stamps—one of which will show the late President as a stamp collector. Other designs will show such war figures, with Roosevelt, as Churchill, Stalin, DeGaulle, Giraud and Admirals King and Stark.

"Honoring the U. S. Constitution, Turkey's set includes two Roosevelt stamps. (818 and 821)"

SING A SONG OF SIXPENCE

HOW MUCH IS SIXPENCE WORTH? That all depends on where that sixpence is. On the island of Bermuda its worth ten and one-fifth cents—on the down under continent of Australia its worth eight and one-tenth cents—and yet on page 206 of Scott's 1946 catalog under Falkland Islands #71 its worth $3.50. . . REMEMBER—this too was once a new issue. Keep your collection up to date. My "SPECIALIZED NEW ISSUE SERVICE" will do it for you painlessly and effortlessly. Only as much as you want to spend and no more. Just those issues you want to see and nothing else!

FRENCH COLONIES—CHILD PROTECTION ISSUE

This set, when it first appeared on the American market, sold for around $100.00. Some months later the price had fallen to $30.00, but we still refused to handle it. Not until we were able to offer this set at $18.50—which we consider its approximate fair retail price—did we place it before our customers. This set already has hit the bottom of the market and is starting slowly on an upward trend. Due to a limited supply of this popular set, we urge our readers to send their orders at once.

Czech History On Postage Stamps

Although the History of Czechoslovakia as a nation dates back only to 1918, for many years beforehand patriots were working for freedom from the Austro-Hungarian Empire. With the end of the First World War, the struggles of generations bore fruit, and the country was free.

The greatest force working for freedom was Sokol, the most remarkable movement of modern history. It was founded in 1862 by Dr. Miroslav Tyrš and Jundrich Fugner, both of whom have been portrayed on stamps. Tyrš was honored in a portrait set of four issued in 1932, on the occasion of the 100th Anniversary of his birth, while Fugner appeared on a portrait set of three issued in 1938 to celebrate the Sokol Summer games. Other issues have featured Sokol designs, the best of which is the set of two, issued in 1938 featuring a falcon, the choice of design can be understood.

Now what exactly is Sokol? Briefly, it teaches gymnastic exercises and muscular development, but it is not a mere brawn-builder alone, it is an intelligent and artistic expression of a people's soul, training bodies and minds in the path of true citizenship. It was due to Sokol training that the Czech Legionnaires were trained in such a short time during the 1914-18 War.

The exploits of Czech. Foreign Legions in the First World War form another stirring chapter in the country's history, and one to which she has done full justice on her stamps.

Recruited forcibly into the Austrian Army, Czechs. were very reluctant fighters, and took every opportunity of deserting across to the Russians. Before long there were enough of them in Russian camp eager to help the Allies, so, after much delay Russians armed and equipped them and the Russian Legion of the Czech. Foreign Legions re-entered the struggle. However, the year was now 1917, and the Russian Armies were disintegrating, leaving the Legion the only cohesive fighters opposing the Germans. After a bitter action at Zborov, "the last flickering success of the Tsar's army," the Czechs began an epic retreat across Siberia to the Pacific Coast. They were regarded very suspiciously by both the Reds and Whites and although they had one or two skirmishes with the Reds, and once controlled the whole length of the Trans-Siberian Railway, they did their utmost to keep clear of all internal fighting. Eventually, they were shipped to France, where they were incorporated into the French Legion of the Czech. Foreign Legions.

Several issues have commemorated the Legions. The first was in 1919, and featured the two symbolic designs, in a set of six. One showed a lion freeing itself of the chains that bound it, and the other showed Czechoslovakia mourning over a dead legionary. The design of these stamps is good, but the production is poor. The second set came out in 1934, and consisted of four stamps, depicting the formation of the Legions at Bay-

Precancel Collectors are Swappers. Much has been written in times past about the extent to which Precancel collectors trade, swap or exchange. Some collectors used to brag about how large their collection was and how little they spent on it. Others of a more cynical nature opined that Precancels would never amount to much just because of that. A dealer would starve to death selling Precancels. I think maybe both were a little out of turn. There was a day a fairly good sized collection could be formed by trading only, especially in the City Type precancels, but things have changed and the collector who wants to fill out his Bureau collection will quite likely spend some money or his collection will remain uncompleted. There are quite a few Precancel dealers, how well they are doing I can't say. I know some like Hoovers and Gunesch have been in business quite a while. There are some other names that have been in the Precancel Press for quite a few years too. I imagine that precancel dealers enjoy good and bad times in like proportion to the regular stamp dealer. In the collector field I think the trading business has leveled off. There still is plenty of trading carried on, but any collector that wants to get anyplace with his collection will have to spend some money too. They must, or the number of Precancel dealers would be less. I have another thought and that is this. There would have been more swapping among collectors of Foreign stamps in times past had they had the amount of duplicates available the Precancel collector had. Have you noticed the number of Stamp exchanges starting up in the past few months? Not all Swappers are Precancel collectors.

onne and Kiev, and illustrations of various Legionaries, a French a Russian, and a Serbian, clad in their distinctive uniforms. Then in 1935, a set of two, commemorating the Battle of Arras, was issued. This was of the high standard of all later Czech stamps. The last two designs in 1937 and 1938, commemorates battles fought in France, Russia, and Italy. The Battle of Zborov, already mentioned, was commemorated in the 1937 issue, while the 1938 issue commemorated Bachmac (Russia), Doss Alto (Italy) and Vouziens (France). These stamps are definitely among the best yet issued by Czechoslovakia.

= ARE YOU SELLING? =

If you are in the market to sell your collection or accumulation of stamps or covers—You do not want to know how many collections I purchased last year or how many thousands of dollars I spent—You do not want to know how many more thousands I have to spend—You are not interested in a dollar sign with many numbers after it except on the check I give you—You are not interested that John Jones thinks he did best by selling me his collection or that he received more than he figured he would obtain for his holdings.

YOU ARE INTERESTED in what you can obtain for your collection and that I pay immediate cash for all lots purchased. You will also be interested in knowing that if your holdings are large you do not have to ship them as I will travel any distance to view a substantial collection or accumulation. You will also want to know that I purchase any type of material in any quantity. Whether you wish to sell direct or through Auction it will pay you to write, call in person or phone Beekman 3-5443 now or in the future.

NEWS FROM ITALY

The Roman Syndicate of Stamp Dealers has published a new catalog of Italian Stamps 1945 which includes the Italian Ancient States, Italian Colonies, Lombardy and Venetia, Vatican City and San Marino and lists all the new official stamps up to 1944 with current prices in Italian Liras. This volume of 108 pages is fully illustrated and is priced at $1.00. (Via Rasella 155, Rome, Italy)

In a deluxe edition of 700 pages in 16mos the Storia della Posta e del Francobollo (History of the Postal Service and Stamps) by A. Bandini Buti has been published by Ulrico Hoepli, Corso Matteotti 12, Milano, Italy. This second edition of a classical work superbly illustrated in colors is priced at L. 15000!

A very useful catalog for collectors of Europe interested in comparing the prices of the European markets with ours is the one published by Raybaudi, Via Rasella 155, Rome, Italy under the title of Europa e Colonie Italiane 1946 2nd edition. The volume of 276 pages accurately lists all the current market prices mostly by complete sets and short sets, including Airmail stamps, souvenir sheets and the most recent occupation stamps. The volume sells for $3.00.

Glory In The Stars

Hungary's new Horthy semi-postal, B170, sings out the glory of the star-studded Heavens and if you seek color, flash, dignity and stark beauty for your collection, don't overlook this startling new gem just out of the incubator. It pictures Horthy on a purple background; it pictures seven planes and above each you see gnarled warriors of the skies riding their snow-white mounts into action with swords, arrows and lances drawn for action. Superior to most Hungarian semi-postals, and you know what they are! A splendid mint copy only 15c with approvals.

BY THE TIME

This advertisement appears the first 60 different Philatelic Maps will be ready. Prospective subscribers to the Mailing List Service can have the whole group by sending a dollar bill (Regular price 5c per map).

You will be delighted with these beautiful miniature maps and the many fascinating ways they can be used to decorate a collection.

This is merely a trial offer and does not entitle one to the usual Mailing List Service privileges.

The regular subscription cost is $2.00 a year which buys a stamp premium worth that alone plus a four point program anyone of which is worth very much more than $2.00 alone. The next year, for example, will see 80 more Philatelic Maps different from the first 60.

The best way to get acquainted is to send in a dollar bill for the first 60 Philatelic Maps. After that $2.00 to join the Mailing List Service for the second year of operation.

DEALERS:

Wholesale terms and samples on request. Display these Philatelic Maps in your window and then note the results!

Michigan Stamp Club Elects New Officers; Announces Annual Party

The Michigan Stamp Club meets on the first and third Mondays of each month. It is one of the oldest philatelic societies of Michigan. At the 714th meeting the annual election of officers was held at the Book Cadillac Hotel Detroit. Hil F. Best, SPA director and former Vice President, was elected as President and Jack Davis well-known Detroit philatelist, won second place on the ticket as vice president—both of these contests were spirited and highly contested. Wilnot Osborn was elected secretary along with Walter Guibord as treasurer. Guibord succeeds Horace Hartwell, dean of Detroit collectors, who stepped aside after serving the Michigan Stamp Club long and faithfully, to make way for new faces in the official family. President elect Best announced that Mr. Hartwell would be given a key appointment in order to retain his experience and services in the Michigan Stamp Club, this in addition to his retaining his position as SPA branch correspondent. Ray Bartz retiring secretary was elected chairman of the Board of Directors and serving with him will be two new faces, Henry Gates and Clyde Jackson. Allen Lichtig retiring president will serve on the board ex-officio. The 32nd annual exhibition and bourse of the Michigan Stamp Club, will be held March 23-24 at the Book Cadillac Hotel. Walter Guibord is exhibit chairman and AL Ingram, bourse chairman. All bourse tables have been sold and exhibition chairman Guibord is negotiating for judges who will be announced later.

ANNIVERSARY COVER

The Stamporium of Detroit, Mich., issued an unusually attractive cover for the anniversary of President Roosevelt's birthday of January 30th. It bears the 5c Roosevelt stamp canceled on first day at Washington and at the left, in place of the usual cachet is a portrait of the president surrounded with the 1, 2 and 3 cent Roosevelt stamps and the 5c Conference issue which bears his name, thus making the cover show the five stamps so closely associated with the late president. It makes an unusually attractive and handsome cover.
